2020-10-25	1735	History	Hitler's World: The Post War Plan	Nazification	01	5	Adolf Hitler had a clear idea of what he considered to be a model citizen of the Third Reich. For him, a true Nazi was much more than just a blonde haired, blue eyed Aryan of Germanic decent. A true and loyal Nazi would live and breathe the regime, incorporating it into every aspect of their lives. What they read, how they dressed, and even who they married would all be strictly controlled in order for them to confirm to his ideals. Guy takes a look at how Hitler implemented these changes through various policies and laws.	UNITED KINGDOM	English-100	2018	RPT	PG	a	Y	Y

2020-10-25	2030	History	Concorde: Designing The Dream		Designing The Dream	01	1	For more than a quarter of a century, Concorde was the undisputed queen of the skies. It was the most advanced airliner ever built and her technological achievements have not been matched to this day. But, to get Concorde in the air would not be an easy journey. Designed in the late 50's and early 60's, all of Concorde's original plans were hand drawn by the country's top engineers. Speaking to one of the only surviving head engineers, we understand how outlandish a plan it was in the 60's to build an airliner that could fly at twice the speed of sound, carrying 100 passengers at a time, when only a handful of fighter jets could break the sound barrier. 2020-10-25	2125	History	Concorde: Designing The Dream		Triumph And Tragedy	01	2	In the early 80's, Concorde was admired the world over - its distinctive shape became a welcome sight over Heathrow and JFK airport. It seemed it was loved by all, apart from the management of British Airways, who were horrified that Concorde was losing tens of millions a year. Just when it seemed that Concorde was on an unstoppable high, the unthinkable happened when the world was shaken by the Paris crash in 2000. We speak to pilots and crash investigators who were at the scene to reveal the real reasons for the Paris crash and how Air France used the incident to terminate Concorde services forever.
